DETAILS On Sunday 1st on October I was working at the Route 91 Country Music Festival. I went in at 1:00pm. I was at the fresh waters selling waters. The whole day it was nice and going smooth. Customers were nice. When the first singer showed up. He sang couple of songs when I heard loud noise so I thought it was fire works coming from Mandalay Bay because that's what I looked up at 1st, but there was no fancy lights. The singer kept on singing. When again we heard it but this time was shoots. People started running from the front by the stage towards the back, screaming, shouting "shoots." People came to my stand trying to get out through the back. I started running but I got stuck on my stand because everyone by the bleachers ran through the back. I ran to the food truck.

to hide, there was like 5 people plus 2 employees and we hiding. Because I thought there were shooters on the floor inside the event. After my boss come inside too and was recording and we saw the gunshots coming from the Mandalay Bay Casino. I decided to ran out of the food truck because of gas tank, when I ran people started was saying ran ran they are coming and was still gunshots going on. I ran towards the tropicana parking lot behind. I was in shock, trauma I even pee in myself while I was running. When all the sudden again, people saying "ran ran shooter are coming" so I jump a wall with other people. We ran toward the Desert Rose Resorts. Like me 20-30 people when inside an apt that 2 mans were kindly to let us in. I was so ~~scare~~ scared not knowing what was going on only of what people were screaming and shouting saying. One of the person I worked with was in that room too. I stayed there everyone was scare, we were all duck down and one guy was saying that they were shooting at New York, MGM, Monte Carlo, Bellagio Casinos. My friend try to get me out of the room I was but I couldn't leave I was in shock and she said there was an active shooter, so I told her leave. We were in lock down until almost 4 am. We didn't know exactly what was going or how many shooters were in. Then one guy was in contact with I believe a fireman or police man. And he said to stay inside the room that there was SWAT around us and that we were safe. I was so scared I just wanted to come home to my kids. A lady got sick couldn't breathe because she found out her son got shot. It was a horrible night saying people on the floor hurt. After we were able to leave from there. [REDACTED] come back to pick us up but we had to walk to paradise and tropicana. He took me home, I got home and Thank God for me to be safe then I hug my son, because I thought I wasn't going to make it. The past days have been horrible I'm scare, my stomach still not good on Wednesday or Thursday I went to see a therapy counseling at Bridge Counseling I was able to cry it all out. It is helping me on Monday 10/9/17 I went back again. My life has change after Sunday mass shooting. I give thanks to God that I'm able to be with my kids.

DETAILS We were facing the stage on the left side when I heard what sounded like firecrackers. To my right a girl in denim shorts and white tank top was on the ground. The crowd began to run toward the emergency exit. We ran to the Hooters parking lot hearing gunfire periodically. We then got in a car and went to Tahiti Village with another couple.

DETAILS heard what I thought was fire works to the west second round began and everyone started running.
I saw a female dead on the ground and took cover underneath a trash can. During the pause I jumped the middle barrier in the middle back from the stage stand area and while running east/north I saw an event employee dead on the ground. Everyone was running the same North/East direction and during the next round of fire I took cover behind a bar. I could tell the rounds were coming from the South/East but that was all. During # 1 or 2 more rounds were shot off and during another break
I ran to the exit to the East. I believe that there was no more shooting after that but don't remember.
I ran through the dirt lot to the east and over to the super market where someone broke a window and we waited till metro found us and moved us.

DETAILS Was at Jason Aldern, music was loud, heard a couple pops, didn't react. Then was a string of pops and I thought sounded like gunshots, then I saw glass breaking on a nearby bar and I clued in. I think we all did at once. The crowd stampeded and ^{some} people were motionless on the ground. We ran west through a bar and through ^{over} a gate taking cover between bursts of running. We ended up at an airport hanger and took cover there. Police and Ems arrived within 10-15 minutes (estimate?) and the Policeman was very profesional and calming. A short time later we were bussed to UNLV. My wife ([REDACTED]) was by my side throughtout this.

DETAILS At Route 91, I was standing about 25 feet from center stage when the first round of shots went off. I knew it was gun shots and a woman about 5 feet to my right was shot. Everyone started screaming and we got as low as we could, shielding our heads. We waited for a pause from the shots. We then hopped over the first gate and took cover again. After another round of shots, we hopped over the second gate and went running. We ran left of the stage when facing it. We came to a building where someone had broken a window to get inside. They opened a garage door and a bunch of people were inside. There was a plane and some vehicles inside. Me, my brother and a friend took cover in an escalade. All the other people left the garage. We stayed in the car until SWAT came to get us.

- When the shots first started a woman to my right screamed that she could see the window at Mandalay Bay open.

DETAILS I was standing with my husband on the right side of the stage about 25ft back, 15 feet of the center rail. I heard what we thought was firecrackers going off and saw smoke so I didn't think anything about it until the gunshots sounded again - I turned to my right and the girl standing next to my husband started to fall and she said that she had been shot and couldn't breathe and collapsed. My husband + I tried to get help for her. Once someone was with her we jumped the railing and ran to the stage - during this time shots kept going. We hid under the stage and hid. There was one younger guy under the stage who was shot as well and we (my husband + I) got shirts for the people helping him to apply pressure to his wounds. We were then told to run which we did.

DETAILS

Heard what we thought was fire crackers, then the 2nd group of shots came. The lady standing next to me got shot in the upper chest. (center) said she got shot and couldn't breathe and started to fall down, every one grabbed her and we all layed down for cover. After a few more groups of shots we got up and went over the rail and hid under the stage. more shots fired one man was dragged under the stage shot. I gave the people helping him my shirt, we all got out of there after some time went by and he got taking away.

DETAILS I was working at the event the whole weekend and when Sunday came our supervisor from the route 91 concert told us we can leave early and it was around 10 when he clocked us out we walked pass the main stage and we stayed watching the concert for a few seconds then me and a few coworkers walked over towards the food trucks so I can use my last meal ticket. Once I got my food we walked out one of the exits. we walked for around 30 seconds when we heard the gun shots but at the time we thought it was part of the show or someone setting off fireworks. we were walking by another entrance and we saw people running for their lives so we got scared and started running towards the car which was parked in the employee parking a few blocks down. while running the gunshots kept coming down for around ten minutes with what seemed like to be non-stop. DETAILS:

I was backstage finishing loading up the second to last artist's supplies. I went on break and walked to take the break at the workers break location. When I first heard the shots I thought it was the audio malfunctioning. I looked up at the screen and it was off. I told my coworker to check the screen the shots were happening but very sparingly. That's why no one noticed when my coworker was going to check the TV. He heard over the radio it was a shooter. We took shelter behind a short wall with others. We then heard a rifle sound. I thought it was a group of people shouting on the street because I heard a lot of shots and they were very loud. People ran away but we stayed on the floor because there were a lot of shots. When there was a break in the shooting we ran. I got separated from my coworkers and was trying to find them. I was running with one coworker still when the shooting started again and I saw people fall on the ground. We ran and crossed the street to some apartments but we didn't know were to go in. We were near the pool and I thought about jumping.

in to take cover because I thought the shooter was following. I threw chairs on the other side of the fenced (area) so other people could come in. There was a bathroom open by the pool and me, my friend and a stranger took shelter. We hid, turned the cell on silent and we drank some water from the faucet. We called my coworkers by text and waited 5 hours until he came. He had said to wait for the police to come and lock for them but they never came. After 5 hours we called the police 3 times. The police on the phone said to wait. It was horrible waiting because we were just waiting for someone to open the door and kill us. It was the worst five hours of my life. When we couldn't breathe inside the bathroom we were communicating with coworkers. We could not find one coworker. Turns out one of my coworkers I was with before I lost him got shot. Maybe if I had helped more he would not have gotten shot. I should have helped more people. We were so scared and we decided to leave because the only air we got was from the bottom of the door. We decided to go out and decided to get out. We heard voices outside. The man who spoke English he tried to get help. We walked out and talked to a policeman. We were nervous the police would think we had drugs because we had equipment from the show on our belts. We were so scared. The man who we sheltered with walked to his car and he gave us a ride home. We got home about 5am. I called my country's embassy but the consul was on vacation.

DETAILS

I was with 3 friends. We heard noises like fire works. I was on the right side of the stage. We all decided to duck. We still saw people being gun down. That's when I decided to run out of the place. I was jumping over people who were frozen. Telling them to move. It was really bad situation for every. Most of the crowd ran towards the east side of the building.

DETAILS

We were on east side of the stage very close to the walk out portion of stage. I heard a short burst of noise I thought was firecrackers. A moment later I heard more but did not think it was gunfire as it sound electronic. When J. Aiden ran off stage I pushed my daughter down + covered her. When shots stopped I saw across stage someone yelling to run. I grabbed my daughter ran east + continued to hear shots off stage. We made it to a hangar + hid until police escorted us to another hangar + then to Thomas + Mack.

DETAILS:

ON the night of the shooting I exited the east valet at Mandalay Bay to catch my UBER.
Shortly after got outside I heard what I thought was glass breaking and looking in the Garden to my left (I was facing east). Within 2 minutes my uber arrived. As he pulled up I heard the first gun shots. As we exited the grounds we heard the second round of shots. The time stamp on my uber receipt had a pick up at 10:04. If that is accurate I would place the glass breaking at 10:02 and the first shots at 10:03.

DETAILS:

I was using the bathroom when I heard something pop and the music stop playing. My wife (Tina) banged on the porta potty door multiple times. When I opened the door, she stated there is a shooter, we need to go. I popped up from the toilet and started running down while my pants were being pulled up and still urinating. My friend Heather grabbed my hand and I grabbed my wife's hand and ran to the exit by the porta potties. The gun shots were still going on everywhere. As we were exiting my wife got caught on the gate. She said keep going. I pulled her away from the gate and continued to run on Giles St. As we were running a guy got shot in the leg next to us. People were falling over the gates. We proceeded to run on Giles St. past Reno St. into the Tropicana hotel. From there we ran onto a service elevator. People were running from the casino floor screaming a shooter. We all thought there was a shooter inside the Tropicana. After getting off the elevator we ended up on the roof of the Tropicana. There we went as high as we could as we still heard gun shots.

We were on the roof hiding behind air conditioners praying for our safety. As I seen other patrons leaving the roof we followed and ended up in a storage inside a kitchen. There a few men barricaded us in with a freezer. Soon after Thompson security came and said to go to the casino, LVMPD and SWAT are here. They took us all to the pavilion for safety.

DETAILS ~~MM~~ I was standing in the grass towards east side of stage. Heard pops towards the center of the crowd. Heard several more, pops. Realized they were gunshots and ran towards an east side exit. I crossed the parking lot, hid behind dumpsters, the shots seemed to be moving closer in my direction, so I continued east to an airport warehouse, until officers made contact with us.

DETAILS:

On the day of the Mandalay Bay Shooting I was working at the Harvest festival for MMS company doing clean up. I worked a shift from 1PM - 9PM, and since it was the last day, I decided to stay with several other coworkers. We went for food and at around 9:40pm, I decided to say goodbye to [REDACTED] a security guard working by stage. I crossed the crowd to see him, when I heard the first shots. The first shots sounded "pow pow pow" and I heard someone nearby start to scream. I watched the shooter (killed) pull his hat and run. The second shot I heard came in another round or three, but the third round of shots sounded like they would never stop. My instinct was to run. Everyone around me was rushing and screaming and running to get out. I ran and ran and ran, until I reached Flamingo. I didn't know what to do or how to react, I was in shock. I called my roommate to come pick me up.

That first night, I was still in shock when I went to bed, and couldn't really believe it had happened. But at 3 AM I woke up, and couldn't stop shaking. I trembled and cried and felt helpless. I couldn't stop thinking about my coworkers, and the people I had talked to just hours before, and what had happened to them. I felt completely helpless.

Since then I have struggled with everything. I haven't been able to get to work. I'm afraid of things that never used to scare me, even being alone in my apartment at night.

I have difficult moments of depression, and it's a struggle to do basic things that I used to do every day, like clean the house and cook.

As a trans woman, I've had moments in my life where I wanted to die, but this was the exact opposite. During the shooting I fought to live.

But I'm still struggling to overcome the trauma of that day. [REDACTED] The person I was going to say goodbye to is among those who passed, and I still can't understand why this happened.

DETAILS:

We were on the set of the stage when the laser group started waiting for the first song when I started hearing the gunshots, we first thought they were special effects from the show, but when I saw people start falling & saw them being shot my coworkers and I went to hide on the floor, once I heard a brief pause in the shootings, I got up & saw two girls lying on the floor near me on stage so I helped them off stage, but the gunshots started again so we went to the floor again. When another pause came, I went under the stage to grab my belongings, the security asked us to leave under the stage & seek shelter in an office where 50 people were already waiting. I could hear everyone screaming in panic, everyone in the office was crying & holding one another in shock. I looked out of the office window & I could see people being shot & could see many bodies on the floor w/ blood on their bodies. When another pause came, I made the decision to run to my car somehow to escape. A large group of us left the office & heard saw people pointing their phone cameras & police pointing their guns upwards to the Mandalay Bay, during another pause, police told us to exit the office & make our way out to our cars. Left out to street & I saw many bodies on the street, also saw people w/ blood all over them. I had accidentally parked my truck in a lot next to the church, after seeing the people, I ran to my truck & I wanted to see if I could help anyone escape in my truck. I have auto-brake on for my truck so I turned it on first.

a distance, people were all around my truck & they begged me to take them out of there & help escape. I told them all to get in however they could, in my cabine I fit like 9 or 10 ppl while more people jumped into my truck-bed. As I was driving away from my parking spot, I saw people all over the floor so I was able to load more people onto my truck-bed & made my way to Las Vegas Blvd a few blocks away. I drove to the McDonalds down that street where I dropped off some of the survivors off with their family. People in my truck were crying & telling me about what happened to their friends cuz some of their friends had been shot. I spoke to anyone in my truck & instructed them to try & stay calm and told them to call their families. When I came up on some police officers, they took some injured people off my truck bed & they let me through to take people to safety. I drove to the Rio because the Greenway was closed so I told everyone to tell their families to pick them up at the Rio. My manager asked me if I was okay & one of the people in my car helped me, told her back that I'm okay in English. Once I dropped everyone off at the Rio, I drove home to be with my family & let them know I was safe.

DETAILS Even if we (my husband and I) were in the VIP, we decided to go in the general Right, in front the stage ^{L4 Stage} x 4 us. We were beside a nice couple. The man is a soldier. We heard shot. My husband ^{the soldier was shot} thought that was fireworks. At the second time, I smell something weird. At the third time, we ran. We knew something was abnormal. We began to run as soon as we can. We arrived at the Ceasar's airport. We stayed there until the Police evacuated us.

DETAILS I was on the roof of Suite 8. We heard what sounded like rapid firecrackers and didn't realize anything was wrong at first. Other people on the roof started moving back from the ledge so we did too. Then we got down low—since some of the others did. As soon as the noise stopped, we knew something was very wrong and started running down the stairs. This whole time we could hear almost non-stop automatic rapid shooting noise. We started running in the opposite direction, basically away from the strip towards the airport. Sometimes the firing would stop and we hoped we were maybe safe, but then it would start up again. We ended up at the executive airport trapped by [redacted]. We came upon some people in a car trying to find their way out (also stuck by the fence). They asked if we knew how they could get out. Someone in the car had been shot in the side. We kept moving with the crowd. We hid under a palm tree. Eventually the gun shots stopped. We were moved into Caesars private plane hangar & then bussed to UNLV T&M.

DETAILS

We were at route 91 Left hand side of the stage towards the middle. It sounded like fireworks. When the whole crowd came from behind us in a rush. I turned around and there was a huge circle and everyone was down ~~to~~ on the ground. We drop to the ground and then ran to the side entrance by the bathrooms. We hid behind a cop truck then ran again to underneath a semi truck then ran by a building and into an airport hanger.

We were staying ~~at~~ at Mandalay bay on floor 60 room 13. I remember there being a guy in black that I thought was taking pictures on almost on the roof to the left of our window, out of our room. This was yesterday or the day before.

Cuando ya esta limpiando los baños, comence a ver la gente corriendo y gritando. Escuche los disparos, mire una muchacha con un disparo en su hombro. No sabia si las tipo provenian de adentro, mi hermana abrio un contenedor donde tenian las calle sanitarias y todo las cosas de limpieza. Despues yo le dije a mi compañera de trabajo que entraran a la bodega, nos metimos 3 compañeras y habia 4 personas mas que habian asistido al evento con rifles y escuchamos los disparos. No logre ver de donde provenian las tiros y Escuche personas pidiendo auxilio y personas corriendo. En el vagon donde nos escondimos no teniamos luz y se dejaron de escuchar los balazos, a las minutos nuevamente se escucharon los balazos nuevamente.

Yo me subi sobre unas cajas para que cupieran mas gente en el vagon y despues ya no escuche los disparo y mi hermana abrió la puerta para que saliéramos. Yo escuchaba los helicópteros estaban ahí y escuchábamos policía que decían que salíamos. Cuando yo regresé de mi noche fue cuando comenzaron las balazos fue alas 10:00pm.

mi hermana dijo que ya habían terminado los balazos y comenzaron de nuevo. Fue la tercera vez que volvieron a tirar balazos.

Nos volvimos a encerrar en vagón y cuando pasaba esto vino una persona tocando la puerta diciendo que saliéramos. Él era un muchacho voluntario y nos dijo que saliéramos.

después caminamos por la explanada, había ropa, cosas tiradas, carriollos tirados. Corrí hacia la salida había personas muertas tapadas, personas baleadas, una mujer baleada de su hombre, y también un señor estaba sentado tenía balazo en su espalda.

Cuando llegue a la puerta seguía viendo muchas personas heridas, personas caminando con una soga, personas intentando subir un cuerpo al Jeep y se les cayó del carro.

mi hermanita comenzó a gritar que había muchos muertos y sangre, mi hermanita se comenzó a sentir mal, por que es diabética. En ese momento le hablé a mi ciudadano [REDACTED] le dije que estaba dando fue el evento. Yo estuve en las parkeadoras y ahí había mucha gente con disparos, había una mujer con su cara destrozada, y otra mujer con un tiro en la pierna. Un señor pasó cerca con un tiro en su glúteo. Llegué al final de parkeadero nos sentamos un momento y observamos que la policía no nos dejaba salir, con los garcos. Mire que los helicópteros para sea la luz prendida y paje cerca del mandado bay y volvió a subir. Estábamos hasta las 2:00 am y no nos dejaban salir. Salimos por una callesita y tomamos el freeway. Nos fuimos por el freeway y no había carros detrás venía mi amiga en otro carro atrás.

Desde ese día que sucedió eso no he podido dormir, comer. Anoche escuche un helicóptero sobre mi casa y me da ansiedad y miedo.

DETAILS

For con mi hijo, ahí pensando que era una feria.
 Llegando ahí vimos que estaba encerrado. Llamamos a la policía y no pudimos entrar. Le dije a mi hijo que nos fuéramos por que no había tickets ahí gente americana. Comenzando a correr.
 Me fui corriendo con mi hijo. Cuando de repente se oyeron los disparos pero mi hijo dijo que si había gente pero al oír alar personas una de las que estaban ahí dijo que eso era con el arma. Entonces le dije a mi hijo que corriera rápido. Empujamos a la gente hacia atrás y se fue otra vez los mismo y me puse la gente a correr.
 Yo también corrí con ellos al Highway a la esquina.
 Ahí una maulladora, después vuelta a la derecha donde la gente había estado. Estaban. Nos de [REDACTED] que nos agarraron y que pusieron la cabeza lo único que se fue agarrar a mi hijo y correr hasta que llegamos esta impunidad y Kaval como patrulla. Los disparos se seguían oyendo por segundos pausados pero después se oían después antes de llegar a impunidad y Kaval la gente.

DESCRIPCION DETALLADA El día Domingo, día del atentado me vi envuelto en esa situación, iba caminando con mi esposa, hija, mi hermana y mi sobrina cerca del atentado, algunas personas empezaron a decir que se estaban escuchando muchos balazos y de repente empecé a ver mucha gente corriendo, algunos heridos tratando de salvarse, fue algo muy terrible pues lo primero que pensé fue en mi hija de solo dos años de edad, todos tuvimos que correr para salvarnos pues en ese momento nadie sabía con exactitud lo que estaba pasando o de donde provenían las balas, mi hermana y mi sobrina buscaron donde esconderse y yo con mi esposa y mi hija también nos escondimos, creo dentro de un restaurante, estuvimos casi 3 o 4 horas en ese lugar con mucho miedo y mucho temor de que algo nos pasara, hasta que nos dejaron salir a mi, mi hija y mi esposa

DESCRIPCION DETALLADA:

Es difícil describir y volver a recordar sin llorar y sin pensar en esas personas que perdieron la vida unos fueron a distraerse y otros a buscar el pan de cada día y este es mi caso yo llegue a trabajar de 5:00pm a 1:00am, todo transcurrió tan bien hasta que eso de 9:50 de la noche del 01-October - 2017 escuche unos detonaciones como juegos artificiales pense que eran cuentes, seguí caminando para regresar a mi área de trabajo y justo donde la gente corría desesperada y aterrorizada era mi área de trabajo. los segundos disparos la gente empezó a correr sin control y nos decía que regresáramos que eran valiosos hablaba con una amiga x teléfono cuando la gente empezó a correr sin control en mi desespero mi teléfono cayó lo encontré así me levante y regrese al lugar donde había tomado mi lonche, empecé a vomitar, en el desespero de mi pánico por lo que estaba pasando me refugie en unos fierros solo me rape y tube unos moretones el terror apenas empezaba no podía salir pues me perdí solo quería regresar a casa y no sabía como salir de ahí y afuera el terror seguía mi pecho se apodero un inmenso dolor, el vomito no paraba y mi crisis nerviosa empeoraba viendo gente

DESCRIPCION DETALLADA:

Yo estaba trabajando con Backyard BBQ Village durante Septiembre 29 - Octubre 1 en el Route 91 festival cuando estaba en mi lonche, empezaron a dar balazos pero no sabia que era. Empezaron a correr la gente y era cuando realice lo que era. La seguridad de el evento nos direcciono para el MGM Grand pero se me callo el celular. Mucha gente empuzo a empujar y me calle y me lastime el tobillo izquierda.

DESCRIPCION DETALLADA:

El domingo pasado por la noche despues de ir a misa de 7pm le dije a mi esposa que fuéramos a caminar un rato para distraernos ya que tenía mucho tiempo que no salíamos y decidimos ir al boulevard de las Vegas. Llegamos al estacionamiento del Hotel Tropicana y al bajarnos del auto escuchamos que había musica y mi esposa me dijo que fuéramos a ver que había y así nos dirigimos a las Vegas Boulevard y al llegar a la entrada nos dimos cuenta que había un festival de musica country así que estuvimos afuera escuchando un rato pues mi esposa queria distraerse y ella es muy alegre y le gusta todo tipo de musica al estar ahí por 45 minutos o mas vimos que la gente se empezaba a ir y comentamos que tal vez ya iba a terminar pero en ese momento se escucharon como fire works y pensamos que iba a empezar un show de fire works ~~despues de~~ al poco tiempo se volvió a escuchar y volteamos hacia arriba pero no vimos nada en el cielo y poco tiempo después se volvió a escuchar y vimos como la gente empezaba a correr y decían que eran disparos ~~que~~ entonces le dije a mi esposa que teníamos que irnos de ahí, que me tomara de la mano y que no me soltara y entre tanta gente nos fuimos como podimos al lugar donde dejamos el carro ya que no estaba muy lejos de ahí, no sabíamos ni que pasaba pero pensaba que era algo muy grave porque se empezó a oír muchas sirenas de policía y mucha gente corriendo y muy espantadas. ~~En~~ ~~carrimos~~ como podimos y llegamos al carro y ahí esperamos por un rato para calmarnos un poco y ~~se~~ ~~veíamos~~ que cada vez llegaban mas policías entonces le dije a mi esposa que deberíamos irnos ~~de ahí~~ ~~a~~ y ~~en~~ camino la casa vemos mas y mas patrullas y ambulancias que iban en camino

En medio de los baños móviles cuando de repente escuche una serie de sonidos, que a mi parecer pense que se trataba de unos cohetes artificiales, o juegos artificiales como la canazco ya, hasta pense que era parte del show y camine tranquilo hacia la tralla y aun estaba la musica del grupo country pasaron algunas segundos y escuche el segundo ruido y ahora si se escucha mas duro pero el grupo habia parado de tocar y ahora si mi mente entendia que eso ruido habia sido una rafaga o seria de disparos en ese momento tambien escuche muchos gritos y alaridos, en mi mente se cruzaron muchas ideas y una de ellas era correr, pero sabia hasta este momento que era un acto terrorista y justo cuando llegue al "Storage" averille encontre un compañero de trabajo y yo ansioso le daba a entender que quieramos de ese lugar pero el me dijo que la situacion estaba "fca" y el me dijo que mejor nos quedaramos adentro del "Storage" y asi lo hicimos pero antes que pudiera cerrar la puerta llegaron una pareja de Americanos, era una señora y un señor de lentes como de 65 años y se quedaron atemorizados por el terrible panorama pero despues a casi inmediatamente vino una compañera del trabajo y se metio tambien y recuerdo al ultimo antes de cerrar de adentro el Storage vino una mujer delgada y alta Americana, pero ella venia tambaleando y grito entonces yo la abraza pues estaba en una especie de crisis nerviosa y todas le decian que se tranquilizara y asi se cerró el Storage, estaba oscuro y cuando de pronto otra rafaga se escucha y todos nos agachamos y una compañera de trabajo escuche que oraba y yo le decia a la mujer delgada take it is Dont Problem. Aunque yo tambien tenia temor pero no queria demostrarlo y a largo lo que me impacto fueron las palabras que la mujer le dijo a su marido, dijo I love you pero lo dijo tiernamente y con mucha emocion, ah y cuando paso el tiempo eternamente parecia que no paraban los disparos o rafagas hasta escuche la angustia de ellas y decian Where is the Police pero cuando habian cesado un poco las rafagas vino alguien abrir la puerta y era [REDACTED] el jefe de nosotros y nos saco y dijo que nos fueramos por la puerta de salida y de inmediato nos salimos pero para entonces ya habia gente herida en el suelo sangrando y algunos policia que nos mandaban hacia la direccion del Aeropuerto

DETAILS:

I was using the restroom when I heard what appeared to be fireworks, then what I guess I saw people running like crazy and then some people were on the floor and I saw people falling the sound of the shooting was very scary. I got very scared and I ran out without a step. All I wanted was the sound to stop and to get out of the place and I was very shocked and I was not in the capacity to think or do anything. I asked a stranger for a beer after because there were lines and there kindly gave me a beer during the fear. I close my eyes and I was praying, I was in shock. It was the worst fear I ever experienced in my life.

I lost my bag with my wallet that contains about $300 and my birth certificate my voice.

DETAILS

I was walking as a server for Route 91 in the VIP East Suites, I had just left the bathroom to go down to the bar to make customers a drink. I heard what sounded like fireworks but I walked up and didn't see anything so I went back about my shift and then I heard Jason Gledhill stop talking and at that time I could hear distinct sounds of gunshots and a lot of metal things and people screaming and running. The bar area exit and I then looked around me and saw people panicked and moved. I called out to them to follow me and saw people running. I ran behind the bar and there was about a 3 ft fence there and I attempted to jump over and then I heard my feet up to get over the fence and I fell.

I don't remember exactly how I turned once I got over the gate but I hurt
my left leg in the process of getting away.
I ran towards the exit where live fire was running and got outside of the gate on Ches St. I panicked and couldn't breathe for a min and someone helped me continue running as running. I could hear continuous gunfire that sounded much like a real zone I ran no sounder aft.
on the casino complex I stayed there until approximately 2:30 AM until I wanted to meet my ex to pick me up off of Las Vegas Blvd. By that time the fire seemed to have been going on for 15-20 minutes but it felt like a lifetime.

I was working w/my friend @ her brother's [REDACTED] when the chaos started. We heard a-pops then yelling & screaming. I stepped into the isle & met eyes w/a girl & yelled what's going on & she yelled back in total panic - "Run, someone's shooting people". I stepped back in the booth and now longer fucky shots are firing & hundreds of people were running past us and my friend said "Run for life" & we started to run - Almost immediately we got separated in a sea of people. I was running towards or by the "Nashville Tent" when I got pushed. I tried my best to stay upright but another girl was also falling & we both went down and people started running over us. Then a man picked us up. Me & the girls hid by the side of the tent. I tried to call my husband but he didn't answer so I called my son who's a fireman - The shots started again then my son could hear them he said get out of there. I ran across the street where people were hiding behind things people were bleeding crying then more shots & puffs of smoke a guy yelled "Run" we didn't run far enough so everyone started running again. ~~I ran towards the tent where my friend was staying but I couldn't find her. It was pandemonium in Hooters. I finally seen a fireman & asked if it was safe to go out front! & he said yes.
As I was waiting to be picked up I just stood helpless & confused watching everyone else - Mother trying to hold it together for the kids. Then a silver car stopped on Tropicana and someone got out & dropped dead right there. I think he was trying to get help from a fireman. Anyhow I got some minor injuries from falling & getting trampled ~~and~~ and I am seeking medical attention for now. Scariest thing ever! I am also experiencing emotional stress over this event.

Quiero decir que yo estaba recogiendo la basura en todo momento y era un concierto muy bonito con mucha gente ese día entre a trabajar a la 1pm y salí a las 9pm cuando salí del trabajo fui a comprar algo de comer estuvimos un rato con mi mamá mi hermana y mi novia y mi novia quería ir a despedirse de su amiga "Maria" pero yo no la deje ir porque quería que estuviéramos juntos conviviendo como una Fam. que somos después de un rato empezamos a oír algo así como unos cueros pero no nos dimos cuenta que eran bullets hasta que empezó la gente a correr de ahí salimos y nos recogió mi sobrino que fue en la Koval de ahí empezamos a platicar entre nosotros y fue algo muy horrible

Llegando a la casa mi novia se puso muy histérica porque no sabíamos del estado de su amiga "Maria" hasta después de un rato se tranquilizó pero es muy feo el estar en un lugar muy bonito y con mucha gente muy buena congueros y deseados de convivir muchas Fam. NIÑOS

CM: Okay. [REDACTED] is in [REDACTED] at Valley Hospital. His date of birth [REDACTED]

What is a contact phone number for you guys?

JU: Um,

ST: Do you know your dads?

JU: My - my -- I do.

CM: Or your dad's phone number.

ST: What's your dad...

JU: Okay. [REDACTED]

ST: And what about yours?

JU: [REDACTED]

ST: Okay.

CM: And what injuries did he sustain?

JU: So, um, he had two bullet wounds. Um, one was on the left side, um, and then the other was, I guess this was his...

JM: So one was a through and through from the front left just below the rib cage out the back.

CM: Okay.

JM: The second or might have been the first, I don't which order they came in -- was through the lower back and out through the stomach.

JM: Correct.

JU: Yeah.

ST: ...turned around. Okay.

CM: Okay.

ST: And what is your dad's address?

JU: [REDACTED]

ST: Okay.

CM: At the time, uh, the shooting started, where were you guys? You guys were all together, correct?

JU: Yes.

CM: And where were you in relation to the stage or the ground?

JU: So if you - you were facing the stage, um, we were on the right side. Um, we were somewhere between like the...

JM: The neon bleachers - neon.

JM: ...neon VIP bleachers...

JM: It was that...

ST: Okay.

JU: It was below us.

JM: ...bleacher.

JU: Yeah.

CM: Okay. And what did you guys see when it all started? Do you remember who was playing at the time?

JU: Yeah. Uh, it was Jason Aldean.

CM: Okay.

JU: Um, it was like his third song in.

JM: Third song.

CM: Mm, hm.

JU: Um, and then it kind of started to get, like, I guess panicky. Thi- this is from my perspective.

CM: Right.

JU: Um, panicky. You know, you can just tell people were frantic.

CM: Right.

JU: Um, I just remember looking over at my husband and he was just like, "We need to get down," um, and then him - him and my son were down first. And I was just kind of slowly making my way, not really sure what was happening.

CM: Mm, hm.

JU: Holding onto my mom. My dad was up ahead of us. Um, and - and then he kind of just pulled us down the rest of the way. Um, we had some friends behind us as well. Um, and then - and then I remember him yelling for my dad, like, like, "Get down" and my dad was down and telling us, "I got punched."

ST: Mm.

JM: Got kicked. He really did get (unintelligible) running.

CM: Right.

JU: Or hit...

CM: Right.

JU: ...on the way out, like someone's way out or something. Um, so we all kind of laid there as the fire just kept happening. Um, and then I - I could hear crying, which ended up being my son, 'cause I remember, like, "Where's [REDACTED] who's our son."

CM: Okay.

JU: And he was, like, "I'm right here mom." Um, and - and he looked over at us and - and over at our friends and it was just like, "We need to move when we can" and once the gunfire stopped, we all stood up along with a lot of other people 'cause it kind of cleared out after that.

JU: Um, and him and my son ran one way and our friends and my -- took my mom and ran the other way.

CM: Right.

JU: So, it -- at this point, I'm like kind of facing those neon bleachers, um, and they're going to the right side of it, like towards the end of it and my mom was going to the left. And so my dad and I kind of just like, "Where do we go." Um, we started to follow after him and my son and, um, maybe a few steps...

CM: Yeah.

JU: ...and my dad was just like, "I - I can't breathe."

ST: Mm.

JU: "Um, I've been punched." Like, it, you know, and I just kind of -- I looked at him and I didn't know he was shot at the time. Um, and it was just, like, "Dad, you have to keep going, like, people are laying on the floor. We need to find somewhere to take cover." And so we ran to the right side of those bleachers, um, and - and kind of paused, 'cause at this point, my dad's just like ready to collapse but not.

CM: Mm, hm.

JU: And he's like, "I - I can't breathe," [REDACTED] So he pulled -- he kind of starts to like - like he's uncomfortable so I pulled off his shirt and that's when I saw the - the - the bullet wound. Um, I honestly -- I don't think that I really examined anywhere else. All my attention went to that.

CM: Right.

JU: So I didn't even know or realize there was another bullet wound, because it wasn't even very bloody.

CM: Right.

JU: Um, it was just like the blood I had seen from here, so we - we immediately go under the bleachers and some lady was just like, "Are you guys okay?" And so I'm -- I tell her that my dad's been shot and she's calling for anybody that has medical training. And someone, I - I don't even know his name. He, um, I think had a European accent. Um, he came over right away and he started kind of, like, examining my dad.

CM: Right.

JU: Um, he gave me some gauze. I really don't know where it came from. Um, and to like hold over his - his wound. Um, but the main thing was just my dad kept saying he couldn't breathe. Um, and so I think once -- and I - I had spoken with my mom at this point on my dad's phone. Um, and she was on the other end of the bleachers but they weren't letting her come to us 'cause they, you know, didn't want her to get up and they didn't want...

JU: Um, and I...

CM: Is - is that - is the rounds - the fire - the bullets still coming in at that time? Or did they stop?

JU: I - I'm not really sure.

CM: Yeah.

JU: I - I was on the other end and I'm underneath at this point, so...

CM: Okay.

JU: ...I'm - I'm not paying attention, just focused on my dad.

CM: And [REDACTED] you were with her this whole time?

JU: No.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

JU: Um, and so when I told my mom, I said, "Mom, dad has actually been shot. Um, you need to find me. I'm under the bleachers." And she said, "I'm under the bleachers too." And I said, "Call my name. Maybe I might be able to hear you." And so she said, "Okay" and she started calling. So they told me to - to be quiet because they think they're going to come over here. So that...

CM: They thought they were very close.

JU: Exactly.

CM: Okay.

JU: And they sounded close when - when we first dropped down.

CM: Right.

JU: And so that's why they - they wouldn't let my mom go anywhere just yet. And I think she was with a cop, because she ended up getting led back around backstage by a cop. So I think they must have, you know, just cautioned her to not yell, not to stand up and so she was like, "I can't go anywhere, I can't come to you." And so I said, "Okay hang up with me and call [REDACTED] lost him and [REDACTED] Um, and so we hung up and the phone had kept dying on me. Um, and I don't even know how much time had passed but it felt like a little bit of time had passed 'cause it just seemed like forever at this point. So we started to move out because my dad still couldn't breathe and so now we're in the fresh air and he's still laying down. Um, he kind of felt like he needed to pee. And so, um, we thought maybe, you know, he had to go to the restroom so we kinda' like rolled him over to his side and he's like, "it's just a sensation."

CM: Right.

JU: Uh, they - they called over some other guy to help us but that guy's wife was laying on the ground not breathing so - so me and then the European guy picked up my dad and carried him. And someone was just like, "There's a triage back by the House of Blues." And so he just kind of like, "Are you sure you can carry my da- carry him" and I was, "We've got this." And pure adrenaline and so we just - we just kind of like hobbled over ta' the triage. Um, and the minute we got into triage, everyone was so helpful, just laid him down, um, on a gurney and everyone was checking him. Someone was, like, "You know, he - it's possible he could have broken ribs. He definitely has a gunshot wound."

CM: Mm, hm.

JU: Um, and he just -- the main thing was he just - "I can't breathe." Um, and at this point, you know, there's tons of people around him so I'm just standing back, like, ma- you know, watching. Um, and I guess an ambulance must have pulled up 'cause the guy was like, "There's, um, there's an ambulance coming, we're going to take your dad," um, because this other guy that was ahead of him didn't make it. So, ev- everyone kind of just picked up my dad's gurney, carried him out to the street and my dad was still like, "I can't breathe, I can't breathe." So half of the people were like, "Roll him on his side, you know, whatever feels comfortable..."

JU: ...EMT came up to us.

CM: People are just trying to help.

ST: Monday morning quarterbacks. Nobody's...

JU: Yeah.

ST: ...guessing what they think. Yeah.

CM: Yeah.

JU: ...figure out where he's going to go. I could tell in - in the ambulance there was -- it was packed. So, I mean, I -- there was no way I would have fit anyways.

JM: Um, I -- like she said, track of time was just gone.

ST: Mm, hm.

CM: Right.

JM: It - it just kept coming.

ST: And that's...

CM: Could you tell where the bullets were coming from at any point?

JM: I knew exactly where they -- I didn't know -- I knew the direction, but I - I -- to this point, I st- I still question the hype of it.

CM: Right.

ST: Right.

JM: So going back to you asked how it started, um, I heard pop, pop, pop. I turned around. We all turned around. And we wer- I would say we were at the closest point to the - to the Mandalay - to Mandalay Bay. So I turned, looked around and was like, "Is that fireworks or is that.."

CM: Mm, hm.

JM: "...or is that his fire of pyrotechnics."

CM: Right.

JM: Thought nothing of it. Turned back. It felt like at least three more minutes went by where nothing happened. And then pop, pop, pop, pop, pop again. We turned. I asked my buddies - my buddy -- one is a retired police officer. And I said, "Were those gunshots?" He goes, "I don't think so." And then it happened again. It just kept coming.

CM: Rapid fire.

JM: Rapid fire.

ST: Mm, hm.

JM: Exactly how it -- so that's when we all hit the floor.

CM: Did you see people falling and that's what kind of said hey?

JM: Yes. Yes. So...

CM: Okay.

JM: ...it's sti- I subcon- or internally I said, "Shit, we need to hit the floor."

ST: Mm, hm.

CM: Right.

JM: But I still had no idea what was going on. Um...

ST: Your brain wasn't catching up to your instincts...

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

JM: Right.

CM: You didn't want to believe it at first.

ST: ...what you figured what was going on. Yeah.

JM: Exactly. I see people dropping and that's when she said -- I grabbed my son, I grabbed her, hit the floor and my father-in-law turned around and said, "I've been punched." I grabbed him by the shoulder and said, "Suck it up, you just got hit, don't get shot." Pulled him down and he curled and said, "I think I got shot." So that's when I saw the hole the first time.

ST: Mm.

CM: Yeah.

JM: Then I turned, sti- still nothing -- mentally did not catch up. I turned behind me and saw a woman not 5 feet behind me and her husband's screaming for help. Head was full of blood. Uh, and then I got on the phone calling mom to say goodbye. Um, once it broke again, that's when we decided to move -- we kind of split.

CM: Once the bullets stopped for a brief moment?

JM: Yes.

ST: When you had the lull.

JM: For a free moment.

CM: Right.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

JM: There's a - there was a break in the rapid fire.

CM: Right. Right.

JM: Um, so I picked up my son, ran towards the exit, looked back. I saw them running towards the bleachers. I looked back again to see if they were coming towards me. Lost them.

CM: Yeah.

JM: That's when I then took the cover again. It just kept coming. And...

CM: Where did you take cover then?

JM: That was the middle of - of the stage.

ST: Yeah, the middle.

JM: So (unintelligible).

ST: He wasn't sure. It's back by the sound stage.

JM: I knew it was coming from the direction we were standing, which is -- they were saying...

CM: Right.

JM: ...I need to get away from this area.

CM: Right.

ST: Mm, hm.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

JM: Um, when we took that cover again, I just -- I remember hearing bullets, just and hitting objects around me. I don't know if it was bodies, floor, something. I just kept hearing it.

ST: Ricochets probably.

JM: Right. I just - I - but I remember distinctively hearing just the whipping path. They felt like they were right over head. Once there was a break again, I picked up my son and I saw people at the opened gates yelling...

ST: Oh, mm, hm.

JM: "Let's go. Let's go."

CM: Right.

JM: So I picked him up, ran, ended up behind the church. I don't know what street that is, but there's - there - there's a church back in that back corner.

CM: Right.

ST: Okay.

JM: I was back there. I got behind a wall and looked back to see if any of them had followed me. When I turned back around, there was already officers right behind us.

CM: Right.

JM: Telling us, "Get the hell out. Get the hell out." Um, I kept running again. Ended up in between Tropicana and Hooters. And fearing that it might have been a terrorist attack, I was staying away from buildings. I did not want to go in a building. So we stood - took cover behind another - a steel container of sorts.

ST: Like a Conex box or something.

JM: Something like that.

ST: Mm, hm.

JM: A bunch of other people kind of met up and that's when I started getting hauled with everybody else.

CM: Okay.

JM: And ended up getting to the car.

CM: Okay.

JM: And rushing to the hospital.

CM: Okay.

ST: Okay.

CM: Anything else you can think of?

JM: Mm, mm.

CM: Okay.

JM: It's kind of a brief - I think that's everything that I can remember.

ST: Yeah. We appreciate you talking to us.

CM: Yeah.

ST: It's probably really hard to do it, but.

JM: For sure.

ST: That's why you (unintelligible) all over the plaza.

JM: Yeah.

CM: Okay. Operator, this is Detective McGregor. Uh, this is the end of the interview. Uh, it is ten, three, seventeen and the time is 1722 hours. Thank you.

eso ya no era normal mi esposo me tomo de su mano y me dijo pasa lo que pase no te sueltes y de mi todo era muy espantoso no sabia que hacer como pudimos entre la gente corrimos en la parte donde dejamos nuestro carro estacionado pero todo lo que veiamos era escalofriante la gente nos aventaba y derrepente se tiraban al suelo y no sabiamos que hacer nos metimos casi abajo del carro no abajo pero nos protegimos abi estuvimos no se decir que tiempo y llegaron muchos carros de policia y era un caos nos subimos al carro y mi esposo tembla-ndo de miedo encendio el carro y buscamos salir de abi lo mas pronto posible y regresamos a nuestra casa. todo esto me tiene muy llena de panico al dia siguiente no envie a mis hijos
a la escuela ahora no puedo dormir y vivo con desconfianza de todos estoy muy mal no resulte herida de uala pero apacharrarme raspones
y un pie torcido pero tengo mucho panico incluso el ir al medico para una revision.
